

Are You Prepared for the Unexpected?

As pilots, we need to better prepare for the unexpected. Join us and follow along with Jason Schappert of MzeroA.com and author of the book "Pass Your Private Pilot Checkride" as he takes you inside the emergencies and shows you how the chain of an accident forms. Attend this seminar and you will learn suggested techniques to take the surprise out of an unexpected situation. Don't miss this exclusive opportunity. Click the link below and register TODAY.

Directions: Please use the map link for directions. The seminar will be held in the Community Room at the Terminal Building; upstairs from the Denunzio's Chophouse restaurant.
